

Introduction

Name:Wanjiru Dennis Kizito Wachira
son to: Esther jane wanjiru Wachira grandson to:Fredrick Ndegwa Wachira
:Lucy Waringa Wachira

Background:

- Born in Nyeri, Kenya, at a Catholic hospital in Mathari.
- Raised by a single mother in Nyahururu.
- Fondly recall the bustling neighborhood called Co_site.

Rural Experiences:

- Frequent visits to grandparents in Nyeri, at Kigogoini.
- Fascination with farming, particularly maize farming and cattle rearing.
- Learned about the value of hard work and respect for nature from rural experiences.

Childhood Adventures:

- Firstborn and youngest in the family, enjoyed mischief with friends.
- Cherished moments of exploration and mischief, typical of childhood.
- Mother worked tirelessly as an accountant and later as an auditor.
- Shared experiences of occasional farming with mother, instilling a connection with the land work

Transition to Riverside Estate:

- Improved financial situation led to a move to Riverside Estate.
- Initial challenges with water supply and electricity, later resolved.
- Installation of solar power enhanced living conditions.

Impact of Upbringing:

- Contrasting experiences between urban and rural life shaped perspective.
 - Deep appreciation for simplicity, community, and family values.
- Mother's dedication taught the importance of perseverance and hard work.

Key Takeaways:

- Childhood memories of outdoor games and adventures were formative.
- Instilled values of camaraderie, competition, and appreciation for nature.
- These experiences laid the foundation for personal growth and shaped character development.

Conclusion:

- Introduction sets the stage for a journey through childhood experiences.
- Emphasis on the significance of upbringing in shaping personal values and character.
- Establishes a connection between childhood adventures and subsequent development.